Hampton Lucy Plant and Produce Sale

The Hampton Lucy Plant Sale raised a magnificent £1035.00, just beating last year's record and despite having to compete with the Royal Wedding! We benefited so much from help by the many parishioners who gave their time throughout the growing period and on the day. Thousands of plugs were potted on, watered each day, many being grown on in homes and greenhouses. All of this effort resulted in a wonderful display of plants and produce on the day. We also had generous support from local business including Charlecote Mill, Bordon's Nursery, Valefresco, Isola Garden Designs, The Boars Head, Sainsburys, West's Bakery, and Maypole Butchers, with their donations or discounts helping to keep costs down and the profits up. Bread, cakes, and teas and a

BBQ were available to buy on the day, and all of this was possible because people gave up their time to support the event. The Plant Sale is just one of the fund-raising events organised each year by the Village Hall Management Committee to raise funds. The next to look out for is the Annual Jazz Picnic, on the Parish Field on Friday, 6 July. See the poster on the Notice Board page. (Thanks for your hard work, Paul....Ed.)

Bar for the Course?

Team Loxley this year entered the annual Beer Run Relay held in Stratford-upon-Avon on Friday, 25 May. With deference to our combined age of over two hundred years we were entered in the Super Veterans category. We had a great race, coming 3rd in our category and 21st out of 78 teams, Not bad for bunch of old boys! Team

Loxley was made up of: Richard Dobedoe, Paul Jennings, Glynn Jones and Nigel Chidgey.

Charlecote's Sunday Teas

Hampton Lucy Open Gardens

The day arrived, Sunday, 10 June, the sun shone, the Parish Field was full of cars and the village was alive with visitors. Tea and cake was being consumed in large quantities and, of course, the gardens looked beautiful! What a great afternoon. Like the Plant Sale three weeks earlier, it really was a village-wide effort and the outcome of all the work was the magnificent sum of £1382.69 towards the repairs to St Peter ad Vincula, as reported in last month's Grapevine. The church was open, as usual, and many of the visitors took the opportunity to look around. One emailed me afterwards to say: My husband and I visited St Peter ad Vincula today and were in awe of its beauty! We really do have a special building in Hampton Lucy and we need to look after it. The PCC is currently working on an application to the Heritage Lottery Fund for a big grant towards the estimated £300,000 cost of the repairs to the north aisle roof and stonework. So thank you and very well done to the organisers, to all who helped in any way - and especially to those who prepared and opened their gardens.

Dear Friends,

As I write this, our country and perhaps the world are about to be gripped by World Cup fever. Yes, the four years since we (England) were knocked out at the group stage only managing a single point, have elapsed and it is time to go through it all again.

We may, of course, win it this time! We are unlikely to do worse than last time. But, win or lose, I hope everyone will remember that it is, after all, just a game. I say this because I was reminded recently that, when England lose, levels of domestic violence increase. It seems that the frustration, disappointment or anger that some people feel when the national team loses gets expressed in physical aggression towards their wives or partners.

It is of course right to condemn any such acts of violence but, just as I am tempted to feel too superior, I find myself wondering how often I allow my feelings to over-ride my better judgement. Do I sometimes say, or write or even do things that may be hurtful to others because of my own negative feelings at the time?

I find the Christian faith and the experience of the Church helpful in two ways here. Firstly, Jesus warns us against the dangers of hypocrisy when he talks about people offering to get specks out of other people's eyes, whilst they may have a great plank in their own. (I suspect he was very funny at times!) Secondly, one tradition of prayer encourages Christians to spend some time at the end of each day looking back over it, thanking God for the good things but also trying to spot the moments where we may have let ourselves, others, and God down, and asking Him to help us do better. If we really take this self-examination seriously, over a period of time, we are likely to become more self-aware. In turn, we are then less likely to allow our feelings to lead us astray, making for more harmonious relationships.

So, however the football goes, let's aim for some positive results in the self-awareness and relationship area.

David Jessett

The Cross of Nails comes to Loxley and Hampton Lucy Schools

On Tuesday, 5 June, children from Loxley School safely delivered The Cross of Nails to Hampton Lucy School and the event was marked by a service in St Peter's Church led by Rev'd Rachel Saum. The Cross is travelling to all the church schools in the Diocese of Coventry to mark the centenary of its founding. Loxley School took the cross on their PGL adventure trip and Hampton Lucy children in Reception and Year 6 have made their own replica crosses from household nails.

A True Parishioner

Ian Hoggarth died unexpectedly and peacefully on 11 May, just before his 75th birthday. After retiring as Finance Director of Potterton International, he was happy to give his time, energy and skills to a number of local organisations and charities. He was Treasurer of Friends of Charlecote Church and instrumental in raising hundreds of thousands of pounds to rebuild the steeple and renew the roof. He was Treasurer of Charlecote Village Hall, External Auditor of Charlecote Parish Meeting and Charlecote Parochial Church Council, a Trustee of Hampton Lucy Educational Trust, External Auditor of The John Lucy Trust, and External Auditor of Hampton Lucy and Charlecote WI. Ian was buried in Charlecote Churchyard on the morning of 29 May, and a thanksgiving service was held that afternoon - a truly memorable occasion.

News From Charlecote Park

The early part of July, soon after 9.00am opening, is the best time to visit if you like to walk through the summer parkland when it is at its quietest. Pick up a Tree Walk leaflet on your way in and you might see things in a new light. Don't forget our free Children's Club activities on Thursday afternoons in August. Just pop in and join in with the crafts on offer - there's something different every week (normal admission applies to non-NT members). Adults will need to remain with the children in their care. If you join the National Trust at Charlecote (there's a new £10 membership for 5-17 year olds) we get a financial donation from central funds which helps fund our never-ending conservation work. Membership means you can enjoy Charlecote as often as you like, as well as over 500 other NT places. You'll get free admission to National Trust for Scotland places too, and a quick pit-stop at a NT property on a long journey can be very handy! Book ahead for our outdoor theatre events in August – Three Inch Fools return with A Midsummer Night's Dream and Hamlet on 10 and 11 August respectively. Bring a chair or a rug and a picnic, and there's a discount if you book for both shows. Call the office on 01789 470277 to book. In the June issue of The Grapevine, the ticket prices quoted for Midsummer Night's Dream and Hamlet on 10 and 11 August, were incorrect. Tickets are £15 per person, and concessions (under 16 and over 60) are £12.50. Children's tickets are therefore charged at the concession rate. MG

Hampton Lucy and Charlecote WI

The members, rather than the committee, were in charge for the June meeting. Mary Woodman took the Chair, Christine Osborne acted as Treasurer and Margaret Whyman as Secretary. Mary welcomed three members from Tiddington who's WI has sadly closed. Kath Clarke announced that the date of the July meeting has been changed from the 4 July to 11 July as we have been invited to a Garden Party at Bishop Itchington WI on 4 July. Hampton Lucy and Charlecote WI is now twinned with Bishop Itchington as part of WFWI's Centenary celebrations, encouraging socialisation between neighbouring WIs. Mary then introduced the speaker for the evening, James Stacy, who talked about books and beliefs. It was a fascinating and amusing talk entitled What is Life covering writings from the very early Christian period right up to the present day. Susanne Johns thanked James for a very enjoyable talk, and delicious refreshments and wine were then served. Kath thanked the members for a most entertaining and enjoyable evening. The next meeting will be held in Charlecote Village Hall on 11 July, 2018, when the speaker will be John Parnell talking on Circus Skills. PT

Loxley Neighbourhood Development Plan – Pre-submission Consultation

Loxley parishioners are reminded that the deadline for completing your NDP survey is Thursday, 5 July. We would like to encourage as many people as possible to complete this so that the sites included in the final plan reflect the opinions of the whole community before the finalised plan is put to an official vote. Without an adopted NDP we have much less chance of influencing where development goes so please do complete yours so that the results are truly reflective. The survey can be returned on paper or completed online - follow the link from www.loxleyvillage.com on the NDP page. Any queries, contact loxleyparishchair@gmail.com GJ

Is There Anybody Out There?

I am getting more and more despondent! There has been an absolute zero response to my appeal in last month's Grapevine for someone to take over the Treasurer's role from Emma. I also sent out an appeal to all my Grapevine e-mail contacts last week to no avail. Lots of people have told me that they want The Grapevine to continue but it can't do so without a Treasurer. It's a role than can easily be done from home, the payments and banking are mostly done online and it isn't onerous - but it does need doing. Emma has been very patient but she does need the break. PLEASE give it some serious thought and contact me if you can help. Contact details are on the front page. AJW

Hampton Lucy Youth Club needs YOU!

Hampton Lucy Youth Club meets on alternate Thursdays from 6.00pm to 8.00pm for kids aged between 8 -16 and, thanks to the support of the children and volunteers, it's going really well - enabling the kids to enjoy themselves, make new friendships, relax with old friends, create, and spend time in the park playing dodgeball. We usually have between 15 – 30 kids coming along, and that means we urgently need more adult volunteers. If you are willing to give some time, maybe just once a month, please call

Kate on 01789 601496. We would also welcome anyone who is working towards their Duke of Edinburgh Awards to help us set up the hall and equipment, manage the tuck shop, help with craft activities and generally help to look after the children. Paul Woollard has generously volunteered since the club opened in March 2017 and we would all like to say a huge thank you to him. He has been wonderful and will be missed.
