DIAMOND JUBILEE EDITION

July and August, 2012

Charlecote's Jubilee Celebrations (and a unique solution to the shortage of public transport!)

Seventy people, aged from one to ninety three, celebrated Her Majesty the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in grand style on Saturday, 2 June. The proceedings started with the taking of a Village Photograph, which will be displayed in the Village Hall. A Champagne Reception followed, when John Lampitt paid tribute to the Queen and proposed the Loyal Toast. A delicious "bring and share" lunch followed, prizes were awarded for the best "red, white and blue" outfits, and the youngsters released a helium balloon each, which were last seen floating high in the sky towards Hampton Lucy. (Hmm! – Ed.) The party then moved over to The Malt House field where, fortified by a barrel of beer and a Jubilee Cake, huge fun was had by all, with games, sack races, egg and spoon, wheelbarrow races, a Tug o' War, 'rounders', and even a race for the dogs, won by Crumble Smith, despite the fact she was by far the smallest competitor! Two enduring legacies of the Diamond Jubilee will be the village flagpole, and the wall-hanging, the latter featuring twenty five scenes of Charlecote, to be worked in wool by residents of the village and assembled into a panel. This will then take pride of place in the village hall. Very many thanks to everyone for making this such a memorable and enjoyable occasion.

A Letter From Her Majesty The Queen

Hampton Lucy C. of E. Primary School and Nursery sent a Hampton Lucy Jubilee Mug, designed by pupil Honor Pepperell, as a gift to Her Majesty, enclosing two letters, one from the children and a second from Mrs Sue Main, Chairman of the Parish Council. This reply was received, bearing the crest of Buckingham Palace and dated 7 July, 2012. Dear Mrs Main, The Queen wishes me to write and thank you for your recent letter, sent on behalf of Hampton Lucy Parish Council, on the occasion of Her Majesty's Diamond Jubilee. The Queen was pleased to hear of the events being organised in Hampton Lucy to celebrate her Diamond Jubilee and touched by your kind thought in sending her a mug, designed by Honor Pepperell, which will also be given to each of the children attending the Village's Street Party. I am to thank you for your message of good wishes to Her Majesty in this, her Diamond Jubilee year.

Yours sincerely, Richenda Elton. (Lady-in-Waiting)

Dear Friends,

A few months ago I explained that I would be taking a sabbatical later in the year. This will start at the beginning of August and I will resume my duties at the beginning of November. So this is my last letter before I stop work for that period. During my time off, under Cathy's leadership, the Readers, Churchwardens, PCC members and other Church members, assisted by a small team of visiting priests - Christopher Lamb, Heather Turner and Mary Crameri, will maintain and develop the life of the Church, just as they would if I was leaving to take up a new role.

It will no doubt be rather strange for many of them to be taking on new roles and tasks – just as it will be for me after 15 years ministering in Barford, Sherbourne and Wasperton, and nearly five also ministering in Charlecote, Hampton Lucy and Loxley, to lay aside those responsibilities and tasks for a period of time. Perhaps it will be a little like the experience of retirement for some people. There will be a degree of freedom and the opportunity to do things I choose to do rather than things that are required of me. I will no doubt enjoy that immensely; but perhaps I shall also miss the sense of being needed by people at times. I may even feel very unimportant. That could be good for developing humility!

The Bishop does not require anything in particular of priests taking sabbaticals. We don't have to do something worthy or write a report. As I mentioned last time, I hope to spend a part of the time following the Santiago de Compostella pilgrimage route across northern Spain, but much of the time will be for resting, reading, praying, playing, taking more exercise and generally putting myself back together after what has, at times, been a difficult few years.

Hopefully I will return refreshed and ready to pick up my role again with renewed energy and enthusiasm. At the time this appears in print I will still have a month to go before I finish on Saturday, 4th August, so until then I am still in my role. If you see me after that I will still be David Jessett, but I will need to refer you to someone else for matters relating to the Churches of our Benefice. I am sure you will understand.

Meanwhile, may I wish you all a happy Summer, (if it ever comes!), and Autumn.

With best wishes,
David Jessett.

Jubilee Bells at St. Leonard's Church, Charlecote

Twenty seven people, ranging in age from four to, at a guess, seventy four, took turns at ringing the bells at St Leonard's Church, Charlecote at 3.00pm on Sunday, 3 June, when we joined in with thousands of other peals of bells across the nation to celebrate Her Majesty's Diamond Jubilee. Seven of our erstwhile campanologists were Chinese language students from Warwick University who happened to be visiting Charlecote on the day. They couldn't have imagined that when they set out in the morning, and took many photographs to record the experience and to show their friends and family back home.

The Village Celebrates a Remarkable Royal Diamond Jubilee

Following the awful weather for the Thames Water Pageant, the morning of Monday, 4 June, dawned bright and dry for the Queen's Diamond Jubilee in Hampton Lucy. The village was resplendent with bunting and large Union Flags strung across Church Street, and the area around the school was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting, much of it made by the pupils and parents. A real community event!

Kate Evans, with her platoon of helpers from the village and the Friends of the School, did a magnificent job preparing a street party feast for a hundred youngsters. The King and Queen for the day, Fiona and Edward, preceded by the ponies and Scottish Piper Bill Gibson, led the children, most of them in fancy dress, as they paraded through the village to the tune of Teddy Bear's Picnic. A lively show by Andy Kirk entertained the children (and adults) before they all moved down to the splendid tea table with Union Flag drapes, golden thrones for the Royal Couple and lashings of food and drink provided by the parents on a 'Bring and Share' basis. Everyone enjoyed the rest of the party as it unfolded, with tea and cakes by the WI, Ally Speller's Model Circus and fairground organ, maypole dancing, fun and games in the school field, free pony rides, a treasure hunt, and the freedom to run around a village without cars.

Three hundred residents, families and friends came along to the 'Picnic in the Street', and there was a great party atmosphere. Grovefields Hamlet deservedly carried off the champagne prize for the 'Best Dressed Picnic Table', and the Royal Worcester Jubilee plate for the 'Best Dressed House' was won by Christine and Derrick of 7, Stratford Road. Masterjam provided great entertainment, playing music from the 60s to the present day to satisfy most tastes, with grown-ups and children dancing into the night.

Unfortunately, the master of ceremonies rather lost control of the Tug o' War during the interval. Hampton Lucy and Valefresco found their teams boosted by numerous enthusiastic tuggers and the rope finally gave up the unequal struggle. Despite the piles of giggling bodies scattered around there were no injuries, other than the odd bruised bottom, and a draw was declared.

After more enthusiastic dancing in the street and an impromptu conga, the evening moved to its finale at 10.00pm with a torchlit parade to the beacon and fireworks, once more accompanied by the piper, where we sang the National Anthem, saluted the Queen with three rousing cheers and parted with a chorus of Auld Land Syne. Amazingly, everyone was up bright and early to put Hampton Lucy back together again and by 11.00am the village was back to its sleepy old self again. An enormous 'thank you' goes out to the many people who helped to make it a day to remember for a long, long time, especially for the children, who were indefatigable!

Wellesbourne & District Lions Club

A big "thank you" goes to everyone who supported the Jubilee Fun Day at Loxley Fox on Monday, 4 June. After a full Sunday of Britain's finest precipitation, we were blessed with the best weather of the long weekend. Everybody seemed to enjoy the day, with many staying on for the evening to be entertained by the excellent local band 'Cactus Jam'. Takings for the event are still being reconciled and I will report the amount raised in a later newsletter. Wellesbourne Lions are pleased to have been invited to Barford Fete on Saturday, 7 July, and Walton Fete on Sunday, 29 July. We hope you will be able to come along to one or both of these annual events and look forward to meeting you there. Sadly, as you know by now, the Raft Race has been postponed until September due to the river conditions. More details later. AS

Loxley School Federation Consultation

For the past few months, the Governors at Loxley Primary School have been exploring the possibility of Federation and have now voted to proceed to a Formal Consultation. The proposed Federation is between Wilmcote, Snitterfield and Loxley Schools and will mean that, from January 2014, the three schools will share a single Governing Body and Executive Head-teacher but remain as separate schools and retain their own identity. We think this is a very exciting opportunity for Loxley School to offer the children an even better standard of education, and to build a brighter future for our school. The Consultation Document is being sent out to all parents, carers, school staff, the Local Authority, the Diocese Board of Education, the Secretary of State, Trade Unions, Professional Associations and other relevant people and organisations. There is a six-week period in which parties can raise questions or concerns and offer their views on the Federation proposal, with deadline of Monday, 2 July, 2012. If you would like to know more about the proposed Federation, or see a copy of the Consultation Document, please contact the School Office. NC

Hampton Lucy and Charlecote WI

At 5.00pm on Wednesday, 6 June, a group of our members were outside Hampton Lucy Village Hall to receive the Warwickshire WI Olympic Baton from Wellesbourne WI. It arrived in style, led by two of their members riding a tandem, and was handed over to our President, Jeryl Stone, by her opposite number from Wellesbourne, Anne Hepworth. We then enjoyed a very sociable afternoon tea with them. The following morning the baton was on its way again. Classic cars, with the cars and occupants dressed in red, white and blue, formed a cavalcade to deliver the baton to Ashorne Village Hall, where it was passed on to the President of Ashorne and Newbold Pacey WI, Sue Byrd. In true WI fashion, morning coffee, tea and cakes were then enjoyed by all present. The National Anthem was sung in recognition of the Diamond Jubilee, followed by a chorus of Happy Birthday to Sue Byrd. The June meeting was Members' Night, when the committee could take a back seat. After the routine business was closed with 'Jerusalem', a convivial cheese and wine supper was served by the members. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, 4 July, in Charlecote Village Hall when the topic of a talk by Julie Turner will be 'Wild Life Gardening'. MJW

Loxley WI

The annual joint resolutions meeting with Ashorne WI on 10 May approved a proposal calling upon the Government to safeguard the standards of midwifery. The presence of midwife Karen Barber to answer questions was much appreciated. There was also an enjoyable demonstration of spinning by Aileen Pearson. It was a pleasure, as always, to enjoy the company of our generous Ashorne hosts. On 6 June, the WI 'Olympic Baton', which has been progressing throughout the county, was brought from Kineton to Loxley. Committee members celebrated the occasion with coffee and cake by the kind invitation of our chairman, Margaret Buckingham. The baton was then taken on the next leg of its journey to Wellesbourne WI. The meeting on 16 June was a Greek-style luncheon party, celebrating our 60th birthday, at the home of Chris Osborne. On 10 July, (please note change of date,) there is an outing to the Hill Close Gardens in Warwick, next to the racecourse, meeting there at 2.00pm. A guided tour will be followed by afternoon tea in the cafeteria. Finally, on 14 July, the quilting group 'The Loxley Cotton Reels' are staging another exhibition of work by popular request, to be held in Loxley Church from 3.00 pm to 5.30pm. MC
