Good Fun, Great Company and an Occasional Glass of Wine!

Fifty eight residents, young and old, enjoyed the 20th Annual Skittles Evening in Hampton Lucy Village Hall when, as ever, the skill of the bowlers was matched by the enthusiasm and exuberance of the audience, especially the children. The fish and chips weren't bad either! 'Thank you' to Master of Ceremonies Jason Cunnington and his family for running the event so efficiently. It was a great night. The Skittles Night is one of four annual events currently organised by the Village Hall Committee, the others being the Christmas drinks, (see the diary page), the Plant Sale in May and the Jazz Picnic in July. The Christmas drinks are provided free for residents as a 'thank you' from the committee for residents' support during the year, whilst the other three events are fundraising social events. Together they raise about £1500 for hall funds, the rest of our income coming from grants from the PC, the PCC and the John Lucy Trust. The hall needs to be well used by the community to justify its running costs. Current weekly activities include Keep Fit, Tai Chi, and Al-anon. The Parish Council, private parties, associations and clubs also use the building for their meetings, but there are still quiet periods and we would welcome new activities and groups. The hall is well equipped and the charges are very reasonable. In the past, it has been used by a youth club, playgroup, an amateur drama club, musical soirées and the Rural Cinema. Maybe some of these could be revived, and some new ideas tried. We are very open to suggestions but do need extra help to deliver them. The committee would love to hear from anyone in the community who would be prepared to join us to help. Membership of the committee is not onerous; we meet about five times a year and have a great deal of fun at the various events. It is a great opportunity to make friends in the village and amongst the various groups within the community. If you are interested, please speak to me, Huw, Jackie, Carolyn or Mel or, if you prefer, e-mail me, Eddie Hoare, at eddiehoare@uk2.net or Huw Williams at jacwil@btinternet.com (Tel: 01789 841155)

Dear Friends,

Well, after what seems to have been a very short three months indeed, (they do say "Time flies when you are enjoying yourself."), here I am again back in my role as Priest in Charge of these six parishes. Let me begin by thanking all those people who made it possible for me to have this time off by taking care of the life and development of the Churches in these Parishes during my absence. In particular, of course, Rev'd Cathy Davies who stepped into my role and held things together extremely competently, but also the clergy, Readers, Churchwardens and the many others who all played their parts.

So what did I do with these three months? Well, amongst the highlights were a few days spent with some Nuns in Kent, a mini pilgrimage to Santiago de Compostella in Northern Spain, and some very pleasant relaxing days with my wife near to Berwick upon Tweed.

Beyond that, one of the most enjoyable things was being able to choose how to fill my days. Another was being able to have relaxing evenings at home rather than a lot of meetings! In a nutshell, I have said to a number of people that they were three of the happiest months of my life! (Which means either that it was indeed really happy or that I have had a miserable life.)

But one of the other things that was important for me was having more time for praying. Clergy are expected to pray each morning and evening and, while I have usually managed to do that while working, the pressure of time often means that it is rushed or gets squeezed, especially in the evenings if there are meetings to go to. So, to be able to take my time over it was valuable and I hope to keep that up because I think that one of the things that prayer can do for us is to lift us above our own personal and rather narrow view of things and to get a more helpful perspective on issues so that we can respond to them better. Perhaps I will return to this theme in a few months time.

While I have been 'away' the year has rolled by and so, after a very short while back, I find myself starting to prepare for Christmas! And, as this is a December and January edition, may I wish you all a wonderful Christmas and also a happy and peaceful New Year.

With best wishes,

David Jessett

St Leonard's Day Brunch, Charlecote

St. Leonard being the patron saint of Charlecote Church, on Sunday, 4 November, some thirty people sat down to Brunch in Charlecote Village Hall to celebrate St. Leonard's Day. An excellent brunch, including bacon, sausage and tomato, was prepared by a fine team in the kitchen and enjoyed by all. St. Leonard lived in the 6th Century and forswore a life of luxury in the court of King Clovis, king of the Franks, to help the poor and prisoners. He was given a grant of forest land by the king, which he in turn gave to landless peasants so that they could farm and earn a living.

SL

Hampton Lucy PCC

Mrs Carol Pagett was presented with gifts at Evensong to mark her recent retirement from the Hampton Lucy PCC. Carol joined the PCC in 1976 and, apart from a short break in 2007, faithfully served Hampton Lucy Church over a 36 year period. Rev'd Cathy Davies expressed sincere thanks for Carol's long and dedicated service and for her quiet efficiency as secretary. Mrs Janet Tilden-Smith has now taken over the role of secretary and Carol has set off on a well-earned three month visit to her family in Australia.

GB

Leamington Christian Mission

Response to the appeal for Leamington Christian Mission was tremendous, especially by the younger members of our congregation who did sterling work in sorting out the donations. Grateful thanks go to all who helped in any way to make the afternoon so successful.

De-mingling the Commingled

On 1 November, eight 'Lucy Lads' (see The Notice Board) visited the Kier recycling plant at Ettington, a modern and semi-automated plant, opened a year ago at a cost of £15m to sort the waste from blue-lidded bins and commercial sources. Victoria Hutchin, PR and Purchasing Manager, explained how they purchase recyclable material locally and from as far afield as Windsor, Northampton and Wales. The waste arrives commingled (all mixed up). Cardboard and paper are mechanically extracted, the paper being sucked onto its own conveyor prior to further sorting. Glass is crushed into a coarse grit, ferrous metals extracted by magnets, non-ferrous metals deflected by induction fields, and plastics automatically identified by infra-red cameras and directed by air jets onto dedicated conveyor systems. Wearing Hi-Vis jackets, hard hats, protective goggles, latex gloves, ear plugs and feeling very macho we then explored the gigantic 60,000 sq. ft. shed. Despite the noise and ear plugs, Victoria gave us a detailed explanation as we went around, although not everyone's hearing was quite up to the job. It's an age thing! Suffice it to say that the over-riding impression is one of endless conveyor belts, each one carrying materials that become gradually more refined as they are processed. Along the way, the belts pass through two brightly-lit air-conditioned cabins where operatives pick out the extraneous debris that sneaks through the system, particularly plastic film and those thin plastic carrier bags that seem to get everywhere. A dusty and repetitive job but someone has to do it. So, dear reader, do make their job easier by only putting the correct materials in your blue bin, and avoid packing different items 'one inside the other'. Finally, bales of paper, cardboard, metals and plastic, along with crates of crushed glass, and extraneous residues to be used as hard-core, are loaded into containers for shipping, much of it sold to China for reprocessing. It was a fascinating visit to a surprisingly industrial process, concealed and relatively unobtrusive in the quiet of the Warwickshire Countryside.

Hampton Lucy Parish Council

The Parish Council met on Wednesday, 14 November. Before the meeting, Chairman Sue Main was delighted to present Jasmine and Oakley Evans with a cheque for £25. They had applied for a grant from the Sir Ian Wilmot Fund to pursue their interest in the Solar System, and the Council were very impressed with the letters of application that they had both written. Routine business principally focussed on road repairs and a new spreadsheet reporting system has been set up to formalise the priorities for road repairs in the Parish. The National Code of Conduct for councillors was formally adopted. Full minutes are available from the Parish Clerk, telephone: 841205. AJW

Charlecote Parish Meeting

Charlecote Parish Meeting was held in the Village Hall on Tuesday, 13 November. The main issues discussed were the airfield, creation of a Parish Plan, verges and pathways, traffic related matters, planning and finance. Areas of concern are aircraft noise, the possible future of the former HRI site now owned by Warwick University, and the state of some of the grass verges and footpaths. It was agreed to retain the parish precept for the 2013/14 financial year at the same level. Further information on the Parish Plan will follow shortly. Full minutes of the meeting will be available in due course. The next parish meeting will be the AGM on Tuesday, 21 May, 2013. VL

Wellesbourne & District Lions Club

I hope that you are all ready for Christmas, or well on the way and looking forward to the big day. From Monday, 3 December, through to Friday, 14 December, the Lions will be out and about in the district between 6.00pm and 8.00pm with Santa and our annual Christmas floats. This year we shall visit Hampton Lucy and Charlecote on Thursday, 13 December, and Loxley on Friday, 14 December. Every day we will be supported by a different local charity and they will each receive a share of the money collected, so please give generously. Briefly, I would like to report on a very successful event which the Lions put on for the older folks in the area on Saturday, 3 November. Over one hundred people were treated to an afternoon of entertainment at Kineton High School, including comedian Vic and the Stratford Strummers, plus tea, sandwiches and cakes. On behalf of all the Lions and their partners I would like to wish everybody a very merry Christmas and happy New Year.

AS

Hampton Lucy and Charlecote WI

The AGM was held on 7 November when Jeryl Stone, retiring President, was thanked for three years of enthusiasm and hard work. Jackie Williams and Kath Clarke were also thanked for their support as Secretary and Treasurer. Helen Sill was elected as the new President, Carol Pagett as Secretary and Margaret Whyman as Treasurer. After the business was completed, the members were entertained with a DVD showing the exchange of the Warwickshire Federation Olympic Baton between Hampton Lucy and Charlecote and Ashorne WIs during the summer. This was recorded and produced by David Clarke, an entertaining record of the baton processing in a cavalcade of classic cars! The December meeting will take place at Hampton Lucy Village Hall on 5 December at 7.30pm, when supper will be provided by the Committee, followed by winter readings. The January meeting will be in Charlecote Village Hall on 9 January at 7.30pm, a week later than usual, when Ted Poole's topic for his talk will be 'A Bygone Era of Privies'. The following week, on 16 January, members will join together for their annual meal in the Boar's Head. New members and visitors are always welcome and we look forward to meeting you in 2013.

KC

Loxley WI

On 8 November Jill, from 'Flower and Thyme' florists in Kineton, gave an inspiring demonstration of flower arranging for Christmas. "I have loved every minute of my life as a florist" Jill said, and we enjoyed sharing her enthusiasm. Whilst giving us glimpses of the hard work and often very long hours involved in providing flowers for customers' special occasions, she gave us useful tips on handling flowers and how to extend the life of an arrangement. As a demonstration, Jill created three beautiful displays which, when raffled at the end of the evening, led to three very happy winners. Our next meeting is on Thursday, 13 December, at Loxley School at 7.30 pm. This will be our Annual General Meeting and, after completion of the business and as a Christmas theme, members are asked to bring along a dish of their favourite festive food, accompanied by copies of the recipe, so we can all extend our repertoires.

Winter Season at Charlecote Park

Father Christmas will be at Charlecote each Saturday and Sunday before Christmas. Visits should be booked in advance. Both the house and shop are open at the weekends, the main hall will be decorated, and there will be music outside. The restaurant is open daily but main meals are available only at the weekend. Recent work in the house has included major rewiring. The conservation team has master-minded the removal and safe storage of over two hundred crates of books, large items of furniture and a great number of pictures and smaller objects and the house will re-open on 8 February with everything cleaned, restored and back in place - a truly mammoth task. This month sees a special art installation throughout the grounds with 'Grand Spheres', featuring swirls of woven willow withies. Each willow globe is woven by hand, creating a unique sculpture. Rachel Carter's work has been exhibited across the UK, including at the Chelsea Flower Show and also abroad in the Ukraine. For further information please see the website www.nationaltrust.org.uk/charlecote or call Charlecote Park on 01789 470277

The next Grapevine will be no. 146 for February, 2013. The copy deadline will be Thursday, 10 January. It will be published on the websites on 18 January, with the printed copies delivered on or after 21 January.
